

To the parent(s) of a selected contender of the KEYS Alliance:

Student Crime Stoppers of Tangipahoa, together with the TRACC Coalition (Tangipahoa – Reshaping Attitudes for Community Change), have become accredited members of the national positive-impact project, Operation: Snowball. These two organizations are creating and chartering the KEYS Alliance as part of Operation: Snowball.

Our goal is to help the selected youth continue to develop their leadership abilities by providing skills training and opportunities that will help them to make a positive impact in their communities. Through projects and programs, developed and implemented by the KEYS Alliance members, these teens will establish a set of core values that reflect the mission of the KEYS Alliance and embark on a journey to create an encouraging snowball effect throughout the parish and their world.

As we will be choosing the “inaugural” group of teens this year, we expect that they will also be instrumental in helping to define the program. These teens will share the goals of the partnering organizations to build a healthier, safer Tangipahoa. The youth we are seeking will commit to live alcohol, tobacco, and drug free, as well as crime and violence free while showcasing the positive rewards of their commitments.

The KEYS Alliance Selection Committee will choose charter members from youth who have exhibited leadership skills and good decision-making abilities within various aspects of their lives, such as schools, communities, churches, and/or extra-curricular activities.

If you and your child are interested in learning more about this program, please plan to attend one of the two informational meetings available.
